JULY 22, 2017 | NORTH AMERICAN INDIGENOUS GAMES

EMILY ROBERTSON

U14 • SWIMMING • FEMALE • MANITOBA

Emily Robertson has represented Team Manitoba as our U14 Female swimming athlete for the 2017 North American Indigenous Games!

Emily is a metis athlete residing in Winnipeg, Manitoba. We are thrilled that Emily competed for us and we thank her for showcasing our Manitoba talent! Emily earned a Silver and Bronze medal competing in the 200m Backstroke and 800m Freestyle.

We asked Emily how her what she thought about NAIG and she had a great experience where I got to meet new people and compete against many other Indigenous swimmers. Her favorite part of the Games were medaling in Silver and Bronze, competing and meeting challenges

Good luck Emily in the future and here is your Manitoba Profiled Athlete!
